

Oncology Massage Reiki Therapy

Massage and Reiki during cancer treatment help to improve quality of life. These therapies may relieve stress, promote relaxation and sleep, as well as relieve anxiety, pain or fatigue.

Hoag is pleased to offer a trained oncology massage therapist and Reiki practitioner who can help patients manage these physical and emotional experiences during cancer and develop a safe care plan around possible side effects of treatment.

$35 – 45 Minute Massage

$25 – 45 Minute Reiki Session

(for Hoag cancer patients who are in active treatment, and up to 3 months after treatment; also available to caregivers for these patients)

Available by appointment only.

Physician authorization is required.
